

Lindsay E. Cusack, MSW, LCSW
2907 Butterfield Road, Suite 240
Oakbrook, Illinois 60523
Telephone: 630.586.0900 ext. 26

Licensure

Licensed Clinical Social Worker, State of Illinois
February 2003

Education

University of Illinois, Chicago
Master of Social Work May 2001

DePaul University
Bachelor of Science June 1998

Professional Experience

April 2007-
Present

Psychotherapist Centers for Family Change, Oakbrook, Illinois
· Provide psychotherapy to children, adolescents, families, and adults

March 2007-
June 2007

Adjunct Instructor Northwestern Business College, Naperville, Illinois
· Instructed an Introduction to Psychology class

April 2006-
May 2007

Psychotherapist Brandt Therapy Clinics, Bloomingdale, Illinois
· Provided psychotherapy to children, adolescents, families, and adults.

August 2004-
March 2007

MST (Multi-systemic Therapy) Therapist Hartgrove Hospital, Chicago, Illinois
· Provided intensive, in home family treatment for youth involved with the juvenile justice system and their multi-need families.

October 2003-
August 2004

MST (Multi-systemic Therapy) Therapist Central Baptist Family Services, Chicago, Illinois
· Provided intensive, in home family treatment for youth involved with the juvenile justice system and their multi-need families.

December 2002-
October 2003

Clinical Coordinator The Harbour, Inc., Park Ridge, Illinois
· Provided clinical direction to all agency programs
· Engaged in program planning and implementation as part of management team

April 2001-
December 2002

Program Coordinator The Harbour, Inc., DesPlaines, Illinois
· Coordinated and directed program that serves up to 6 abused, neglected, homeless, and/or runaway adolescent girls ages 12-18

June 1998 -
May 2001

Child Care Counselor The Harbour, Inc., Park Ridge, Illinois
· Maintained a therapeutic milieu for adolescent girls ages 12-17 within a collaborative team environment

Membership

Member, National Association of Social Workers